

Rule 14. Court employees shall not recommend bondsmen or attorneys

No officer or employee of the Court shall recommend bondsmen or attorneys to persons charged in the Court, litigants or their friends or representatives, except that the Court Services Department may assist in procuring counsel for indigent persons.